MAP 1: BELLA BELLA

Map Printed: May 2001

Revision Date: June 10, 2004

General Comments

REMEMBER:

The camping areas listed south of Bella Bella along Lama Passage are no longer available, however there is camping available in Lizzie Cove to the south.

Traveling along the mid-coast region can bring many unforeseen problems, most notably camping areas; they are few and far between. In many cases they are generally smaller in size than in the southern waters of BC and marginal.

Some may be more difficult to find along the steep shoreline, they may appear as small indentations. Many of the sites considered may flood during times of extreme high tides, be aware of this.
